A CURIOUS BEECHER AUTOGRAPH.

The Great Preacher's School Days—His Friendship for a Young Giant.

Perhaps one of the most interesting of the autographs which were disposed of with Henry Ward Beecher's library was one obtained by Dr. M. L. Holbrook of New York, at the highly interesting library sale. It seems naturally enough to have escaped the attention of the cataloguer,
and therefore the accustomed asterisk
was not set against the title of the book containing it. This book was No. 1857 of "Locke's Essay on the Human Understanding," in two volumes.

It was overlooked, undoubtedly, or
credited to some other person because it
was written, "H. C. Beecher."

This circumstance led Dr. Holbrook to wonder who the H. C. Beecher could be,
and then to inquire of Col. W. C. Beecher about the odd signature. To the doctor's letter Col. Beecher sent a most interesting reply, from which I am permitted to quote below:

"It was overlooked, undoubtedly, or
credited to some other person because it
was written, 'H. C. Beecher.'"

"During Mr. Beecher's life at Mt. Pleasant Academy, while preparing for college, he became deeply attached to one of his schoolmates, a young Greek named Constantine Poulis, and they were joined into a pledge of brotherhood, interchanging names.

"For a long time thereafter my father signed himself H. C. Beecher. It was, doubtless, during this same period that he entered his name in the copy of Locke's Essay bought with his assumed middle name.

"As a further proof of his devotion he gave me for my middle name, 'Constantine.'"

"Years very truly, W. C. BEECHER.

"The style and legibility of this eccentric autograph are not greatly different from those qualities as exhibited in Beecher's ordinary signature; though the writing
perhaps, is a little plainer and more round. Written in his teens when he had not yet weary of making his signature, it is evidently not to be differed this way. For the reason, too, in addition to the foregoing history that it gives his autograph in academic days, it will assuredly possess always a very peculiar interest.

JOEL BENTON.

Trousers and Shirts.

All the duds trousers this spring are striped and nearly all have dark brown stripes, either wide or narrow, on light
brown backgrounds.

The newest wrinkle with those who have money to indulge in fads is for very young ladies to wear skirts of precisely the same pattern as the trousers of the man they fancy most. It is already a common sight on the uptown avenues in New York to see young couples uniformly dressed, the girls very often having jackets that match with the overcoats of their companions.

A queer circumstance grew out of this idea in a fashionable school close by Central Park. A young man who knows all the skirts in the school, and is very popular, appeared in very striking trousers a week ago, and this week, it is said, the skirts of five of the girls are of the same material.

An Unlearned Naturalist.
At almost any hour of the day three or four wicker-eyed people may be seen hanging over the railing that guards the base of the library building on the Broadway side and gazing on the monstrous bones of the mastodon and other extinct creatures that may be dimly seen through the windows of the natural science rooms.

"An' is it a horse they're after havin' in there?" asked one yesterday.

"A horse an' did you ever see a horse
before wid fate like a piano?" answered
the other, and thereupon they entered on a lively dispute as to the genius of the beast.—Buffalo Courier.

He Practiced.
The minister called one day and was shown into the parlor, where Johnny undertook to entertain him until his mother should appear. But soon stubbing his toe against a sharp corner of furniture, little Johnny, who was only three years old, gave vent to a string of swear-words.

"Oh, oh!" cried the minister, shocked.
"Where do you learn to use such dreadful words?"

"Well, I'll tell you," said Johnny confidentially: "you see, I hear pa swearing at ma, and then I go and practice on Bridget."—Boston Globe.

Wanted "Furnallus."
Mrs. Riche (in fur store to salesman)—
"I want to look at a pair of furnallus."
Salesman (doubtfully)—"I don't think I know what you mean, Madame."

Mrs. Riche—"One of my friends has bought a pair of horses and a sleigh, and she said she got the paraphernalias to go with it, and I want a pair, too."

Salesman (reddening)—"We are all out of them to-day, Madame."—Journal of Fabrics.

A Voice from Afar.
A Poor correspondent of a Cincinnati
paper says that while he was in the army
in 1863 he awoke one morning on hearing
his name called by his sister's voice.

No one else heard the sound, and the occurrence passed from his mind until a few days later, when he received a letter from home stating that his sister had died on the very day he was so strangely awakened.

Worth Remembering.
Onions are invigorating and prophylactic beyond description. Further, I challenge the medical fraternity or any mother to point out a place where children have died from diphtheria or scarlatina anginosa, etc., where onions were freely used.—Scientific American.

He Inspired Hope.
In Queen Anne's reign, Lord Bateman married three wives, all of whom were his servants. A beggar-woman meeting him one day in the street, made him a very low courtesy.

"Ah God bless you," said she, "and send you a long life. If you do but live long enough, we shall all be ladies in time."

"Had as Wet Hen."
A woman in Georgia sat up late in the night recently to see a pall of ice water
she had hung above the door overturn on her husband when he returned from the "club." She got tired and went to bed.
In the morning she forgot all about the pall until she opened the door to admit
her mother.

The two ladies are still as mad as wet hens, and a divorce suit is talked of.

They are coming to think that the mischief of practical joking can hardly be exaggerated.

National Dairy Fair.

This office is in receipt of a circular letter giving a full report of a preliminary meeting held in the City of Chicago, Nov. 20, 1888, for the purpose of taking steps toward the organization of a National Dairy Fair Association, the first fair of which is to be held in Chicago during the Fall of 1889.

The object of such a fair is for practical exemplification of all dairy interests, including dairy products, implements and methods; in fact, a national school for the time being in which the public are observant students in all that pertains to dairy work.

A meeting is called at Springfield Ill., January 15, 1889, 10 A. M., for final organization of this important movement, and we bespeak for the same unbounded success and trust that all people who read this will give it their favorable consideration and hearty support.

The following Breeders' Associations have given the movement their support and appointed committees of three each, to represent them in the final organization, viz: The Consolidated Cattle-Growers' Convention, the Illinois Short-Horn Breeders' Association, the American Short-Horn Breeders' Association, and the Holstein-Friesian Association of America in Convention. Other associations are requested to appoint similar committees, and report at once to the Secretary pro tem. Horace J. Newberry, Topeka, Kansas. Inquiries answered.

LORD SALISBURY's declaration in favor of woman suffrage in England has produced a profound impression, and several of the leading papers of that country have earnestly endorsed it. He says he speaks only for himself, but there is reason to believe that he seeks to make the idea a Government measure, and that it will receive strong support in the ranks of his party. The incident is an interesting one at any rate; and the discussion which is certain to ensue will be attentively regarded everywhere.

AFTER the disclosures being made by the San Francisco account it is hoped we will hear no more from that quarter about Nevada being the rotten borough of the Pacific coast. Buckley and his pets got in more dirty work during the late election than ever was done in Nevada during the twenty-four years of its Statehood.

It is decidedly refreshing to hear people who have been zealous supporters of the present Wall street administration speak of John John Sherman as a gold bug.

SPEAKER CARLISLE is said to have expressed the opinion that Cleveland's veto messages and the offensive language in which they were couched caused his defeat.

THE PANAMA CANAL BILL SEEN. PARIS, Dec. 17.—Boulanger has sent a message of sympathy to DeLesseps upon the failure of the Panama Canal bill. Boulanger says the rejection of the bill is deplorable, and the crowning sin of the Chamber. A meeting of the shareholders of the company is to be convened, and it is expected to be a very large one, and will favor a gigantic lottery scheme to relieve the necessities of the company.

To Be Closed Up—A Phonographic Success.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The stockholders of the Lake Superior Copper Company have decided to wind up the affairs of that concern.

During the trial of a trade-mark suit in a law Court to-day, a phonograph was introduced to reproduce a letter and other papers, and the instrument worked successfully.

A Wholesale Massacre.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 17.—A Wall-halla, Miss., special says: There was a terrible riot here last night, and today 12 white men and 150 negroes lie dead as the result. For a long time there has been much ill feeling between the whites and blacks at this place, aggravated by the impudence of the latter, and yesterday the two elements became involved in a quarrel which ended in a great loss of life. The facts, so far as can be ascertained, were as follows: A negro and a white man became engaged in a quarrel and the negro was killed. This was an excuse for an assault, and immediately a black horde swept down upon the whites, who were greatly outnumbered. Knowing it was a fight to the death, the whites were prepared to receive their black assailants, and when the battle was ended it was found that 12 white men and over 150 negroes had been killed.

Death in a Mine.

JACKSON, California, Dec. 17.—As George McMan and a man named Pritchard were descending the shaft of the Plymouth Consolidated mine at Plymouth last night, the wire cable broke. There is one hundred feet of water still in the mine, and the men must have fallen into the water, with twelve hundred feet of cable on top of them. The men were sent down afterward, but on reaching 1,000 feet their lights were extinguished by foul air, and they were forced to return to the surface. It is not likely that the bodies can be recovered until the mine is drained.

A Freckle Destroyer.

A St. Louis girl writes as follows: "One day the plumber shut our water off, and I could get none in which to wash my face. I was fearfully soiled, and, looking out of the window, saw a friend approaching to call on me. Glancing about, I noticed half a watermelon from which the meat had been removed some time before. It was partly filled with juice, and I hastily washed my face in it. The result was so soothing that I repeatedly washed my face in that manner. Judge of my surprise a few days later on seeing that there was not a freckle left."

A Significant Document.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 17.—A company of six prominent manufacturers leave to-day for Indianapolis to present an address to Harrison, setting forth that the political parties in the South can now divide on practical issues; that the signers are pleased with the triumph of protection, and they ask Harrison to recognize the best element of the Republican party in making appointments in the South. It has been signed by about fifty prominent manufacturers and business men, and most of them are Democrats.

Chinese Notables.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Ling Lang Quan, Secretary of Legation at Lima, Peru; Chin Shin Yin, Consul General at Havana; Liang Ting Chan, Consul General of San Francisco, and Yi King, an attaché of the Legation at San Francisco, are in this city and will leave to-night for the Pacific Coast.

A Diamond Seizure.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Gilbert Larrios, clothing merchant of Nicaragua, arrived here this morning from Europe with $25,000 worth of diamonds, on which he had not paid the duty, and they were seized. Larrios says he was ignorant of our customs laws. He intended the jewels for his betrothed.

Superstitious Siles.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 17.—A French man-of-war has arrived. The Sultan has returned. He has been absent directing religious and sacrificial ceremonies designed to defeat the schemes of the whites.

A Deficiency Bill Approved.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The President approved an Act making deficiency appropriation for the contingent expenses of the House.

A Short Visit.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Lucy Parsons, the Anarchist, arrived home secretly this morning, but left again without saying where she was going.

Death of Dr. Scott.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 17.—Dr. James Scott, author of the famous Scott liquor law, died at Lebanon yesterday, aged 73 years.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—HOUSE.

On motion of Phelan of Tennessee a bill was passed for the incorporation of the American Historical Association. Andrew D. White of New York, Geo. Bancroft of the District of Columbia, and Justin Winsor of Massachusetts are among the incorporators named.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported back the concurrent resolution for a holiday recess from December 21 till January 7. The Committee propose an amendment substituting January 4th.

Some days ago Lawler introduced a bill in the House pensioning war veterans when they reach the age of sixty years, and to-day he introduced an amendment reducing it to fifty years. The amendment was rejected and the original resolution passed.

A long wrangle ensued over a proposal to appropriate $2,000 for the expenses of the Ford Immigration Committee, it being charged and denied that the committee was junketing and going outside of the scope originally intended, particularly in considering a proposition looking to the exclusion of actors.

SENATE.

At 12:40 President pro tem Ingalls laid before the Senate the resolution of Riddleberger, proposing a reorganization of the Senate after January 1, and its author spoke in support of it. He said his object was to put some other than the Senator from Kansas in the chair, asserting that he had been the chief figure in the most disorderly scenes he could recollect of occurring on the Senate floor. He said a change is necessary, in order that the faith of the Republican party, pledged to the consideration of the British extradition treaty in open session, might be kept. At the conclusion of his remarks, Riddleberger asked leave to withdraw the resolution, but objection was made by Harris of Tennessee, who moved to lay it on the table, and called for the yeas and nays, after paying a high tribute to Ingalls' impartiality and ability. Finally the Senator from Virginia was permitted to withdraw his resolution and the incident closed.

Bills reported from the committees were placed on the calendar as follows: Senate bill to establish a mint at Denver, House bill to provide certain arms, munitions and equipment for Oregon, and for military reservations in Nevada to be opened to homestead entry. Morrill offered a resolution, which went over, to hold evening sessions hereafter.

A Bank Failure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—The California National Bank of San Francisco, which was organized in October 1886, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, suspended to-day. B. P. Thomas, the President, stated that the suspension was due to irregularities which were discovered last week in the accounts of C. H. Ramsden, the cashier. Mr. Thomas stated further that the extent of these irregularities are not known, but that ample funds are available to bring the depositors out of danger.

Fuel, Light and Gas.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 17.—A dispatch from the City of Mexico says: In Congress Saturday night the Union Light, Fuel & Gas Company of America, in which St. Louis, Chicago, New York and Detroit parties are largely interested, obtained a concession for the introduction of water, fuel and gas into all the cities and Government buildings throughout the Republic.

From Harrison to Blaine.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.—A Salem special says General Alger of Michigan passed through there Saturday on his way to Augusta, Me., to meet Blaine. At Ipswich he sent a dispatch to meet him at the station that evening. It is understood that Alger comes direct from Harrison with an important message for Blaine.

Well Preserved.

DANVERS, Mass., Dec. 17.—John G. Whittier, the poet, to-day reached his 81st birthday. Many friends and neighbors called to pay their respects, and large numbers of congratulatory letters and telegrams were received. Whittier is in fairly good health.

Robbed the Wrong Train.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 17.—The officials of the Southern Express Company say their loss by the train robbery Saturday night near Duck Hill, Miss., will not exceed $3,000. The train which followed had $139,000 in the express car.

An Electric Light Plant Burned.

CHICO, Cal., Dec. 17.—The electric light works were totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss, thirty thousand dollars; insurance, eight thousand. The fire is believed to have been incendiary.

Lost Steamer—A Helmsman.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The steamer Jasper Workington, for Glasgow, was foundered off Wigwag coast, and her crew of eleven were drowned. John Bright has suffered a relapse.

A Heavy Failure.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—A Bourse speculator named Bex, whose operations were principally in copper, has defaulted for 12,000,000 francs. Another failure is expected.

The Last One Gone.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 17.—James Morford, aged 93, the last member of the association of the old defenders of Baltimore, is dead.

Old Mate Restored.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Freight rates, both east and west-bound, were restored by the trunk lines this morning.

"EXTRA STAR" KEROSENE!

Best and Safest Oil Manufactured.

Strictly Water White. Guaranteed 150° fire test.

TOO MUCH CARE CANNOT BE TAKEN when purchasing Coal Oil, to obtain an article that will be perfectly safe and of good burning quality. The fact is now generally recognized that our "STAR" and "EXTRA STAR" Oils are the safest and best illuminating oils ever offered, being superior in test and burning quality to all others. These oils are remarkably uniform, which is a decided advantage to the consumer. They will cost no more than inferior brands that are being put on the market branded "High Fire Test," but which are really only 105° to 115° rendering them very unsafe oils for family use. We guarantee the "EXTRA STAR" better in every respect than the Elmer, Eschewers, or any of the fancy brands sold at higher prices. We have had great difficulty in obtaining a sufficient supply to meet the large and increasing demand for our brands. A full supply, however, has just arrived, and we are now in condition to fill orders promptly. Give these oils a trial and you will use no others. We quote "Star" Oil at 22c per gal. lots to suit, "Extra Star" at 27c per gal., lots to suit.

At his shop in the Arcade, C. Coleman and his assistant are always ready to shave or shampoo all comers, regardless of politics.
It is difficult for people from the East to understand how such meats as hang in John Fraser's market can be produced without grain.

Those looking for something nice for holiday presents should not fail to examine C. A. Thurston's stock and prices. The girls say his goods are "just lovely."

FRANCIS RECEPTION.

A Pleasant Evening Spent with Friends and Late Employees.
Friday evening J. B. Francis, late proprietor of the Wieland beer agency in this city, was "surprised" by his friends and late employees by being presented with an elegant silver cigar case and a handsomely chased liquor flask, both engraved as follows: "To Mr. Francis. From his affectionate and devoted employees. Reno, Nevada, Dec. 15th, 1888." Max Kohn made the presentation speech, to which Mr. Francis feelingly replied, and invited his friends to a grand "blow-out" at the Arcade building on Saturday evening. Hastings' cornet band did the music act in fine style, and a pleasant evening was spent.

A Disputed Democrat.

The Eureka Sentinel of the 15th inst. says: Our worthy County Clerk, F. H. Harmon, dropped into the Sentinel office yesterday on business. During his stay he made a few remarks concerning the result of the Presidential contest. It was in the following vigorous style that he gave his notion of things: "Damn Cleveland. He was too fresh. He was not the Democratic party. He wrote too many letters and too many messages. He ought to have been a real Democrat, who could not write, or set up the claim that he had rheumatism. He was too fresh, and he got his boat landed, and along with it the Democratic boat. Damn him."

Stock Shipments.

Seventeen cars of beef cattle and one car of horses, loaded at Iron Point by the Nevada Land & Cattle Company and consigned to M. Brandenstein & Co., were unloaded here Saturday night and reshipped last evening. Saturday evening D. C. Wheeler shipped five cars of mutton sheep to Schubert, Beck & Co., San Francisco, and six cars to J. G. Johnson & Son, same place. To-day Mr. Wheeler shipped ten cars more to Schubert, Beck & Co.
Eleven cars of mutton sheep, shipped Lovelock by John Sibbold, passed through here Saturday evening, consigned to Eugene Avey, San Francisco.

Following are the rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers in the San Francisco market:
Beef—First quality, 7@7½c; second quality, 6@6½c; third quality, 5@5½c per pound.
Veal—Quotable at 6@7c for large and 8@10c per pound for small.
Mutton—Quotable at 6@7c per pound.
Lamb—Quotable at 8½@9½c per pound.
Pork—Live hogs, on foot, grain fed, 6@6½c; soft, 5½@6c; dressed hogs, 8½@9c per pound.

Sleighting at Truckee.

The Republican of the 15th says: What may be called the first snow storm of the season commenced Thursday night, and yesterday four inches of the frozen vapor lay on the ground. This is sufficient for sleighing purposes, and the jingle of bells is heard in the land. At the Summit nearly a foot fell, and the whole country is well covered. There has not yet been sufficient snow to inconvenience the ice men very much. The present appearances indicate that the storm is not yet over.

Military Drill for Girls.

The military drill has been introduced in the Middle Georgia and Agricultural College for the physical development of the female students. The young ladies have been formed into a company and are taught military movements.
In this connection it can be stated that the young ladies of Nevada's University are to receive the benefits of the military drill now being enjoyed by the young men of that institution.

Sierra Valley Telegraph.

The Sierra Valley Leader says: The telegraph line between here and Beckwith is about completed. There will be offices at Jared Strong's, Satterley's, George Humphrey's, E. Freeman's, the Mercer ranch and Frank Campbell's place, between here and Beckwith.

An Opposition Line.

Work was commenced to-day just outside of Stockton, Cal., by engineer Tucker, on a survey for a railroad from that point to Fresno. This will be an opposition line to the Southern Pacific, and nothing is to be asked except the right of way, until the track shall be ready for the rolling stock.

Dr. Bozanko.

In his new discovery for Consumption, succeeded in producing a medicine which is acknowledged by all to be simply marvelous. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste, purges the system, and does not irritate. In all cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, and Pains in the Chest, it has given universal satisfaction. Dr. Bozanko's Cough and Lung Syrup is sold at 50 cents by S. J. Hodgkinson.

The Willows (Cal.) Journal proposes a great "goose drive." Wholesale destruction is needed by concerted action to diminish the number of the birds.

Two carloads of Honey Lake apples came in Saturday evening on the N. E. & O. Railroad, consigned to a Virginia City firm.
The Independent says there is a man in Elko so thin that he is unable to tell the difference between hunger and the backache.
The two hours' delay of yesterday morning's east-bound overland was caused by a cracked wheel, which was replaced at Truckee.
The 29th rehearsal of the Music Department of the School for Girls, under the direction of Miss Eva Quail, will take place on the 19th inst.
Deputy Sheriff W. H. Ingley arrived from Austin Saturday night with a Chinaman who gets five years for attempting to cut a Chinaman's throat.
The Silver State says that John Catlow has driven 500 head of cattle and 3,200 sheep from his ranch in Oregon to Big Meadows, where they are to be fattened for the market on alfalfa.
The Sacramento Bee rather more than insinuates that the Chief of Police of that city, or some of his subordinates, are in the habit of receiving hush money from Chinese prostitutes and gamblers.
Hastings' Cornet Band and the Reno Fire Department gave the late W. H. Rexford a very nice funeral yesterday, for which they deserve especial commendation. Rev. Mr. Lucas conducted the services.

HON. G. W. CASSIDY.

He is Willing to Continue as Bank Examiner.

The Eureka Sentinel of the 15th inst. contains the following note from ex-Congressman Cassidy: Mr. Cassidy of this paper may have some friends in the State who feel an interest in his movements and general welfare. For the information of any such this item is intended. Since the election he has busied himself chiefly with some mining matters in this district, and has succeeded in selling conditionally the Diamond mine to Salt Lake parties for $60,000. He had resigned his Bank Examiner'ship in good faith, but the election resulting as it did in the State and nation, he has signified his willingness to the Department at Washington to resume his duties and go on with them until the general change takes place under the new Administration. He does this partly to relieve the Department from the annoyance of "hunting in" a new man for so short a period, and partly (the main part) for the dollars which the position will yield him during the next few months. He left for California by yesterday's train.

Is Consumption Incurable?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."
Jesse Middleworth, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up of 'doctors.' Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Hodgkinson & Co's drug store.

Palace Dry Goods Store.
Those in want of any article in the line of the latest styles of dry goods should not fail to read the new ad. of the Palace Dry Goods Store in to-day's Gazette. The advertisement of this establishment seems to know exactly what the market calls for in their line, and they never fail to be able to fill all orders. Especial attention is called to both the quality and prices of their goods.

The Masquerade.
The Knights of Pythias have about completed their arrangements for the grand masquerade ball on the evening of January 1, 1889. The several elegant and valuable prizes will be on exhibition in the windows of S. J. Hodgkinson and Isaac Fredrick. The invitations have been mailed, and every effort will be made to make it a perfect success.

Scrophulous humors, erysipelas, cancer and calcaris can be cured by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "I have used this medicine in my family for scrophulous and skin diseases, and it has cured them. It is taken persistently, it will eradicate this terrible disease."—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tennessee.

A. A. EVANS, P. C.
N. P. JAMES, Adjutant.

Can you imagine any ailment that will make a good natured person so peevish, dissatisfied, ill-tempered and cranky as biliousness? Sold by William Fininger.

Eastern Wool Market.
The market for domestic wool is still moving in the direction of higher prices and, while no material change is reported in prices, still the indifference of dealers about selling to any extent is more sharply accentuated. Favorable advice from the London market have been the most potent factors in the market this week, and they serve to strengthen the already very firm position. The anticipations of dealers in this respect have been fully realized. The position of the world's supply has seldom been so well defined as at present. There is no cheap market for wool in any part of the globe. This week the demand has been largely on fine-washed fleeces, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan selling to a large extent outside.

Exciting Hoisting Works.
From the Winnemucca Silver State it is learned that the Adelaide Copper Company, whose mines and furnaces are situated about twelve miles south of Golconda, are erecting substantial hoisting works on the main shaft of the mine. These works will soon be completed, and sinking will be resumed and rapidly pushed during the winter. Other levels will be opened up, and the ore body, which is now the best extensive body of copper ore on the coast, will be further developed. The machinery of the hoisting works is sufficiently powerful to raise the ore and work the mine to a depth of a thousand feet.

Make no Mistake.
By dispelling the symptoms so often mistaken for consumption, Santa Abie has brought gladness to many a household. By its prompt use for breaking up the cold that too often develops into the fatal disease, thousands can be saved from an untimely grave. You make no mistake by keeping a bottle of this pleasant remedy in your house. California Cat-R-Cure is equally effective in eradicating all traces of nasal catarrh. Both of these wonderful California remedies are sold and warranted by Osburn & Shoemaker at $1 a package; three for $2.50.

Merited Criticism.
The Elko Independent sarcastically remarks: With a spirit of virtuous economy the Legislature of 1887 destroyed the office of County School Superintendent. Why did they not save the taxpayers thousands of dollars by abolishing the entire school system? Would it not be well if the Legislature of 1889 to practice legitimate economy by cutting down unnecessary expense in our State Government? They might begin by cutting down the session of the Legislature from sixty to thirty days without any injury to the people of the commonwealth.

Cure for Facunoma.
Medical journals say that strips of woolen cloth, thoroughly saturated with coal oil and cut to fit close under the throat and extending downward below the base of the lungs, is said to be a sure cure for pneumonia, if kept in place from 24 to 36 hours.
Gentlemen frequently complain of their barber shaving them too close, and the face and neck breaking out into small pimples. If DuRoi's Specific is applied to the face immediately after shaving, no matter how close the shave, all sores will be prevented. Sold by William Fininger.

TEA VS. BEER.

The Beverage That Caused the American Revolution.
Bob Burdette, in one of his radical spasms, writes as follows:
Men have fought, bled and died—but not for beer. William Tell did not hide his arrow under his vest to kill the tyrant because the idiot had gone forth that the free-born Swiss should not drink beer. Freedom did not strike as Kosciuszko fell over a whiskey barrel. Even the battle of Brandywine was not fought that whiskey might be free. No clause in the Declaration of Independence declares that a Sunday concert garden, with brass bands and kegs of beer, is the inalienable right of a free people.

Tea—mild tea, harmless tea, the much-mooted temperance beverage—the feeble drink of good old women. Tea holds a higher place. It fills a glorious page in the history of the United States—more glorious far than beer. It is worth fighting for. The best men in the world fought for it. The history of the United States is incomplete with tea left out. As well might the historian omit to mention Bunker Hill or Fannin's Hill. But does any one know a story of heroism or patriotism with rum for its hero? Whiskey men fight, it is true, but they fight other drunken men. The heroes who fall in the struggle for rum, fall shot in the neck and die by the haunting phantoms of "Jim-Jams." Honor never has the delirium tremens; glory does not wear a red nose; fame blows a horn, but never takes one. The champion of beer does not stand in the Temple of Fame. He stands in the Police Court.

Remarkable Medical Consultation.
It is a significant achievement of science when a physician can be taken into consultation at a distance of 6,000 miles. This was done recently by means of the telegraph and cable between Victoria, B. C., and London. The analysis of time and space has rarely been so strikingly shown, and, if the patient should recover, the incident would deserve an honorable place in medical annals.

A Heavy Decline.
The total pack of corn in Maine this year will not exceed 500,000 cases, or 12,000,000 ears, showing a falling off of one-third as compared with last year's pack, and about the same as the pack of 1886, which was the best season in twenty years for Maine farmers. But few lobsters have been packed, and no mackerel.

Nasal catarrh is probably one of the most disagreeable ailments that a person can be afflicted with. If DuRoi's Specific is used with a douche or even sniffed up the nose, according to directions, morning and evening, a radical cure can in most cases be effected. Sold by William Fininger.

A man named McCarthy walked in front of a locomotive at Albuquerque, N. M., Thursday night, and was instantly killed.
A pain in the back often leads to complicated diseases that are almost incurable. Oregon Kidney Tea cures the first and prevents the latter. It is purely vegetable and is warranted and sold by Wm. Fininger.

The Seventh-day Adventists of Hagerburg, Cal., will petition Congress to not pass a national Sunday law.

"The Great Monthly Magazine of the World."—Pacific Churchman.

THE CENTURY
MAGAZINE IN 1889.

WHY Has it such an enormous circulation? Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

BECAUSE THE CENTURY is above every thing a leader. It led the development of wood-engraving in America, and it has fostered American authors. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

BECAUSE Whatever other periodicals
may come into the family,
the great reading world has found out that
"no household can keep abreast of the times without THE CENTURY." Its success is explained by its contents.

BECAUSE The greatest writers of the world like to have their work
read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was for THE CENTURY that General Grant first wrote his reminis-cences of important battles.

BECAUSE It is publishing the life of private secretaries. Of this it has been said,
"The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will hunger for."
The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may begin at any time.

BECAUSE It is printing those remarkable articles on "Siberia and the Exile System," by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not allowed to enter Russia.
The "Chicago Tribune" says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitaly interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." They are "as judicious as the opinion of a Supreme Court tribunal—as thrilling as the most sensational drama."

BECAUSE During 1889 THE CENTURY
contains the greatest series of engravings
of the greatest pictures of the old Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver in the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work, a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by Geo.
W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current international Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories,
a striking illustrated novelette, "The Romance of Dollars," by a new writer, and other novelettes to be announced later; supplemental wa-papers, untechnical and descriptive of special incidents. "Pictures of the War West," by Mary Halleck Foote, etc. etc. We have not space here to announce all the new features.
Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special offer of back numbers to the beginning of the year, and the new volume, is for sale everywhere
after November 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number, $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO., 35 East 17th street, New York.

The Probable Origin of His Name—Some Legends About Him.
There is no doubt or ambiguity with regard to the earliest of Judas Iscariot's names. Judas is merely the Greek or Hellenistic form of the Hebrew "Judah," familiar to everybody. But "Iscariot" is,
as it has always been, a puzzle.
At least half a dozen interpretations of the word have been suggested, by philologists, but no one of them is in all respects satisfactory. The most seeming of their number is that the word is a condensed or corrupted form of the two Hebrew words,
"Ish Kerioth," meaning "the man of Kerioth," Kerioth being a village in Southern Palestine, where perhaps Judas
or his family had their origin.
The name, however, is of no consequence
for our present purpose; and we have remarked it only to show the mystery attaching to the man in every phase of his surroundings.

With regard to his birth, legend and myth are as copious as is conjecture with regard to his earliest years. There are two of them, for which we are immediately indebted to Moncure Conway:
In the apocryphal "Gospel of the Infancy," it is related that a demotical boy, brought to the child Jesus, strikes him, whereupon Jesus weeps, and Satan comes out of the boy in the shape of a furious dog. This boy was Judas.
According to another legend, Judas' mother
had a dream before his birth that her son
would murder his father and sell his God.
To avert this, the child was sunk in the sea,
but was cast on shore. He was adopted by a king and queen, who had a son, whom Judas slew. He fled to Judea, became the pupil of Pilate, and, after the predestined murder of his father, learned from his mother her dream. In terror and contrition Judas hears of a prophet who forgives sins; when he throws himself at his feet, Jesus, recognising his predestined betrayer, accepts him as a disciple, and intrusts him with the purse
so that Judas' aversion might be excited and the plan of salvation not fail. Judas thus became heir apparent to the infernal throne, and in mural pictures of the Eastern churches he appears seated on the knees of a majestic Satan.—New Orleans States.

Little Voices from the South.
"Who discovered America?" asked a teacher of a class of very young pupils.
This startling information was instantly
voiced:
"Christopher Columbus, and he was born in a boat," from which it will be seen that the small scholar had been noticing the shape of Italy on the map.

The same class had a lesson in the "First Reader," telling the memorable story of the cherry tree and hatchet. Closing the books the teacher asked:
"What did George Washington's father say
when he found his favorite tree cut down?"
In her excitement the same child
who told of the boat rose from her seat,
brandished her right arm menacingly,
and exclaimed:

"Who cut down my cherry tree? I means to whip him, I don't care who it was! Because," she added, as she took her seat, "I'll bet that's what he did say,
don't you, Miss—?"

Two small boys, aged seven, were heard,
on their return from Sunday school, discussing the story of the fall of man. One spoke of the great sorrow of our first parents upon being driven from the gates of Paradise by the angel who guarded them.
"But, Bob," remonstrated the other,
"why in the world didn't they jump over the fence?"—N. Y. World.

One Way of Catching Wild Geese.
They have an original way of catching
wild geese in Oregon.
The sportsmen inebriate them with corn soaked in alcohol, and scattered in the field where the birds feed.

Was in the Chair.
"Rufus, was yer to de wh'ich dis
mornin'?"
"Dar's 'is' what I was, Clem."
"I hope yo' drawn in much profit
fom de sarvice, Rufus."
"What yo' mean, sah? Jus' yo' take

The Tennessee Way.
A smart-stepping citizen of Tennessee
was in New York to see about raising money for a proposed railroad line down
in his country, and when asked to explain,
he said:
"There's no explanation about it. This is to be a railroad 300 miles long."
"But about the company?"
"Oh, that's been organized and all the officers elected."
"What's the capital?"
"Fifty million dollars."
"How much stock has been taken?"
"About $300 worth."
"What only $300 worth?"
"That's all, mister, and if you fellers
down here will only pitch in and gobble up the rest of it, we'll go ahead and make things hum."

Dog Story from Kentucky.
The Louisville Courier-Journal tells that a dog of the city fell into a catch-basin, the top being off. A crowd, attracted by his loud yelps, soon gathered around the basin, but no one was able to reach the dog, who was allowed to remain in the basin quite a while.
Presently a man came up with a rope
and lowered it into the basin, the dog quickly catching it with his teeth. The man pulled the dog up slowly till he very nearly reached the top of the basin, when,
on account of weakness, the animal fell back to the bottom. The man again lowered the rope, and when it reached the animal he tucked it under his fore legs and also caught it in his teeth. He was then slowly pulled to the top by the man.

The Gray Hair Fall.
Possibly the most unique method of earning a living known is that adopted by a big, rosy 20-year old blonde, who finds engagements with women just lamenting their first gray hairs, to weed out, so to speak, those obnoxious, no-nonsense, advancing years. The gray hair puller is gentle in her methods of treatment and makes periodic visits at intervals of a few weeks, spending from half an hour to two or three hours, letting down the hair,
combing it out and syring for tell-tale
silver threads.

She carries an innocent-looking little reticule which contains various glycerine
and rose water preparations for a healing
application when the work has been done.

Ordering a Meal.
Young Man (in a loud tone of voice)—
"Waiter, how you quall on tonight?"
Waiter—"Yes, sir."
Young Man (in a low tone of voice)—
"Bring me some of the toast."—[Litt.]

Grandpa—Who was the first President of the United States? Four-year-old—Don't know. Grandpa—George Washington was. Now you know, don't you? Four-year-old—No, I don't know
it. I only have your word for it.

A youngster sat watching his mother
while she "pitted" cherries. She inadvertently passed one without removing the stone. Hopeful immediately picked it out with the remark: "There's one you didn't mention, mamma."

Little Fanny looked intently at her mother for some time. Then she said:
"Mother, you ain't a girl, are you?" "No, Fanny." "What are you?" "I am a woman." "You were a girl once, weren't you?" "Yes, Fanny." "Well, where is that girl now?"

"Yes," said Bobby's father, as he stroked his little boy's head fondly.
"Bobby is keeping a bank for his odd pennies and nickels. And how much have you got saved up, Bobby?" "Twelve cents," he replied, "besides the $3.25 you owe it."

Old gentleman (putting a few questions)—Now, boys—ah—can you tell me what commandment Adam broke when he took the forbidden fruit? Small Scholar (like a shot)—Please, sir, th'
worn't no commandments then, sir!
Questioner sits corrected.

"Jimmy, what did you do with all that cake?" was asked of a little Third Street boy. "I had 'em," mamma?"
"Why, the cake on the table. You cannot have eaten it all?" "I put half of it in my mouth and ate it up." "Well, where's the other half?" "The other half? Oh, I put that in, too."

Enfant Terrible (in presence of the assembled family)—Does Sister Annie sit in your lap? Young Spriggs (terrifiedly avoiding and anticipating a branch of prudent suit)—N-no, no—certainly—of course not; how d-do you little fellows! Enfant terrible (impatient of subterfuge, sternly interrupts)—She said—you was as soft as butter, and if she did not sit on your lap how did she know?

Philanthropist—My dear little children, you should not play in these dirty alleys. Don't you like the public parks?
Child—Oh, yes; they are beautiful.
"Yes, indeed, and you should go to them
as often as possible, breathe the fresh air
and learn to love the beauties of nature."
"Yesir." "Remember, my dear little ones, that God made the country, but man made the town. Now, my good little girl, tell me what you first observe when you visit these delightful homes of nature?" "Keep Off the Grass!"

Rival Sports.

Dan McGary, of the Houston Age, recently paid a complimentary visit to the city of Galveston, which is the great commercial rival of Houston. McGary, owing to his many good qualities of heart and stomach, was invited to the Galveston Elite Club, where the prominent Gal-vestonians assembled to do him homage.
McGary was asked what impression Galveston made upon him. He replied that it was a very nice, quiet little town,
but that the people did not possess the intelligence that was noticeable in Houston,
"present company of course excepted."
He kept on making odious remarks
about Galveston and the natives, always,
however, courteously excepting present
company.

Among the Galvestonians present was Tom Dealy, of the Galveston News. Mc-Gary asked Dealy if he had ever been to Houston. Dealy replied that he had been there.

"How did you like the people?"
"Very much, indeed," replied Dealy,
"they are the handsomest and the most intelligent people I ever saw, present company excepted."
Ten minutes afterward McGary had sent a telegram to his managing editor to strike the Galveston News from the exchange list of the Houston Age.

Not So Much to Blame.

Young Husband—What garment is this, Maria?
Young Wife—It is a shirt, Arthur;
I made it all myself as a surprise for you.
Young Husband (tenderly)—How good you are, darling! Can you think I'll ever wear anything by wearing it?
Never! I shall keep it and cherish it forever. (With heroic firmness) I wouldn't wear that shirt down town,
Maria, for a whole year's salary.

A Contradiction.

When people lose their tempers they are apt to say things that are contradictory. Two New York gentlemen got into a quarrel at their club. Finally one of them, who believes in the code,
said excitedly:
"You are a low blackguard and an unmitigated scoundrel. Now, sir, if you are a gentleman and a man of honor, you know what you have to do.
Here is my card."

Trouble Ahead.

Amateur Artist (to friend)—What do you think of it, Charley? It represents two urchins gathering apples. I call it "A Day in June."
Friend—Well, my opinion is, old boy,
the clock struck twelve, the bride left
the church, when the clerk, a cross-
grained old bachelor, remarked, "There
be always three people ready for a wedding—the parson, the clerk, and
the 'ooman!"

Foreign Always Ready for a Wedding.

In a remote village in Gloucestershire
notice had been given of a wedding,
and the lady and her friends duly arrived, but the bridegroom did not put in an appearance. After waiting till
the clock struck twelve, the bride left
the church, when the clerk, a cross-
grained old bachelor, remarked, "There
be always three people ready for a
wedding—the parson, the clerk, and
the 'ooman!"

A Disappointment.

Wife—I hear that the Rev. Mr. G. of New York, who has been spending a few days here, will be coming to preach
Mrs. E.'s funeral sermon tomorrow.
Husband—Oh, I forgot to tell you.
The reports of Mrs. E.'s death was premature. She is still alive.

Wife—Is it possible? And I was so anxious to hear the Rev. Mr. G.

A Law the People Cannot Change.

There was a heated discussion in an hotel the other night. "I tell you, sir,
said one of the disputants, "there is no law made but what the people can change." "Yes, there is," said a newcomer; "there is one law that no man
—no people can change." "What is that?" "A mother-in-law."
